petitioner as required by La. R.S. 47:304 (C) during the sales tax periods encompassing May 2008 through September 2009.

Due to defendant's failure to correctly report its sales and remit Louisiana sales taxes, the petitioner has determined that the defendant is indebted to the petitioner in the amount of $21,495.62; with sales tax in the amount of $12,319.70, penalties and fees in the amount of $6,609.01, and interest in the amount $2,745.91, in accordance with and being more fully shown on a sworn affidavit annexed hereto and made a part hereof. 8.

Said assessments were issued in accordance with all statutory requirements. The defendant neither paid nor protested the assessments. The time for appealing the assessments have run, no appeal has been taken, and no payments (or payments under protest) have been made on the assessments. Inasmuch as the defendant has failed to correctly report and/or collect and remit the withholding income tax required for the aforementioned withholding tax periods to the Department of Revenue, the Department has determined the amount owed for the aforementioned period (either pursuant to the returns filed and/or the authority granted in LSA-R.S. 47:1562) to be the amount indebted to the petitioner in the amount of $835.48; withholding tax in the amount of $159.86, penalties and fees in the amount of $629.36, and interest in the amount $56.26, in accordance with and being more fully shown on a sworn affidavit annexed hereto and made a part hereof. This amount, calculated through March 11, 2015, is now delinquent pursuant to the authority granted by LSA-R.S. 47:307.

Petitioner issued to defendant formal withholding tax assessments for the withholding tax period September 2008 through September 2011. Said assessments were issued in accordance with all statutory requirements. The defendant neither paid nor protested the assessments. The time for appealing the assessments have run, no appeal has been taken, and no payments (or payments under protest) have been made on the assessments. Accordingly, by law, the assessments are now final and are an established liability of the defendant. Furthermore, the assessments are equivalent to judgments, pursuant to La. R.S. 47:1581.

13.

Subsequent to the issuance of the assessments, additional taxes have become due from the defendant which has not been remitted to petitioner. Defendant is also liable to the petitioner for these additional taxes, together with applicable interest and penalty as provided by law.

14.

Because the aforesaid taxes are delinquent, petitioner is entitled to an injunction, pursuant to La. R.S. 47:314, enjoining the defendant from the further pursuit of business as a dealer until payment in full of the amount due are tendered to the petitioner.

15.

Pursuant to La. R.S. 47:1577, the petitioner is entitled to recognition of its lien and privilege on all property, real and personal, of defendant to secure the payment of the amount due.

16.

Pursuant to LSA-R.S. 47:314, 47:1574.1(A) and 47:1582(A), the petitioner is entitled to a hearing in this matter in not less than two or more than ten days, exclusive of holidays.

17.

An affidavit of correctness which declares that the facts as alleged are true to the best of the affiant's knowledge or belief and a Schedule of Outstanding Liabilities are attached to this rule and identified as Exhibit "A", in globo. Thus, pursuant to LSA-R.S. 47:1574.1(D), all of the facts alleged shall be accepted as prima facie true and constitute a prima facie case, and the burden of proof to establish anything to the contrary shall rest wholly on the taxpayer.

WHEREFORE, the petitioner prays that defendant, Campatori Catering, LLC, to show cause on a date and time to be fixed by this Honorable Court why Judgment should not be rendered against it and why it should not be ordered to cease further operation of his business pursuant to the provisions of La. R.S. 47:314, 47:1574.1, and/or 47:1582.

The plaintiff further prays that after all due proceedings are had that this rule be made absolute, the assessments of the petitioner be made executory, and that this Honorable Court render a Judgment in favor of the plaintiff and against the defendant, Campatori Catering, LLC:

Sales Tax:

LSA-R.S. §47:302 and §47:331 levy a tax upon the sale at retail, use, consumption, distribution and storage thereof of items or articles of tangible personal property. There is a similar tax imposed on the lease of those same types of property. The sales/use tax "shall be collected by the dealer from the purchaser or consumer [except as otherwise provided by law]." LSA-R.S. §47:304. The tax imposed under LSA-R.S. §47:302 shall be collectible from all persons engaged as dealers. LSA-R.S. § 47:303 (A) (1).

All persons and dealers subject to the tax under the sales tax laws are expected and required to file a sales tax return either monthly or quarterly and to accrue and remit the amount of tax due to the Secretary of the Department of Revenue for the State of Louisiana. LSA-R.S. §47:306. In the event a dealer fails to make a report and pay the sales tax required or in the event a dealer makes a grossly incorrect report or a report that is false or fraudulent, the Secretary of the Department of Revenue has authority "to assess and collect the tax, together with any interest and penalty that may have accrued thereon, which assessment shall be considered prima facie correct and the burden of showing the contrary shall rest upon the dealer." LSA-R.S. §47:307.

Withholding Tax:

"Every employer making payment of wages shall deduct and withhold from such wages a tax in amounts provided in withholding tables promulgated by the Secretary [of the Department of Revenue for the State of Louisiana]." LSA-R.S. §47:112(A). Every person who deducts and withholds any amount from any wage payment is required to file a monthly, semi-monthly, or quarterly return and an annual or final return to the Secretary of the Department of Revenue, State of Louisiana, and to pay therewith the tax required to be withheld but in no case less than the amount actually withheld. LSA-

R.S. §47:114. "If the taxpayer fails to make and file any return or report required by law, the Secretary of the Department of Revenue has the authority to determine the tax, penalty and interest due by estimate or otherwise. LSA-R.S. §47:1562.

Rule to Cease Business:

Title 47 contains three applicable provisions that allow the Secretary to request from a court of competent jurisdiction a rule against a taxpayer ordering the taxpayer to cease business activity for failure to pay amounts collected from others:

(1) LSA-R.S. §47:314, found in Chapter 2 (Sales Taxes), Subtitle II (Provisions Relating to Taxes Collected and Administered by the Collector of Revenue) of Title 47 (Revenue and Taxation) provides:

> Failure to pay any tax due as provided in this Chapter shall ipso facto, without demand or putting in default, cause the tax, interest, penalties, and costs to become immediately delinquent, and the collector has the authority, on motion in a court of competent jurisdiction, to take a rule on the dealer, to show cause in not less than two or more than ten days, exclusive of holidays, why the dealer should not be ordered to cease from further pursuit of business as a dealer. This rule may be tried out of term and in chambers, and shall always be tried by preference. If the rule is made absolute, the order rendered thereon shall be considered a judgment in favor of the state, prohibiting the dealer from the further pursuit of said business until such time as he has paid the delinquent tax, interest, penalties and costs, and every violation of the injunction shall be considered as a contempt of court, and punished according to law. For the purpose of the enforcement of this Chapter and the collection of the tax levied hereunder, it is presumed that all tangible personal property imported or held in this state by any dealer is to be sold at retail, used or consumed, or stored for use or consumption in this state, or leased or rented within this state, and is subject to the tax herein levied; this presumption shall be prima facie only, and subject to proof furnished to the collector.

LSA-R.S. §47:314 (emphasis added).

(2) LSA-R.S. §47:1574.1, found in Chapter 18, (Administrative Provisions), Part III (Assessment and Collection Procedures) of Subtitle II (Provisions Relating to Taxes Collected and Administered by the Collector of Revenue) of Title 47 (Revenue and Taxation) provides in relevant part:

> A. On motion in a court of competent jurisdiction, the secretary may take a rule on a taxpayer, to show cause in not less than two or more than ten days, exclusive of holidays, why the taxpayer should not be ordered to cease from further pursuit of his business for failure to pay to the state amounts collected from others by his business as sales and use tax or as withholding income tax, along with any interest, penalty, and costs related to such taxes. Such rule may be taken only for amounts due as a result of assessments or judgments which have become final and non-appealable.

> B. This rule may be tried out of term and in chambers, and shall always be tried by preference.
> C. (1) If the rule is made absolute, the order rendered thereon shall be considered a judgment in favor of the state, and the court shall enjoin and prohibit the taxpayer from the further pursuit of his business until such time as he has paid the delinquent tax, interest, penalties, and all costs or has entered into an agreement with the secretary to do so. . . . .
>
> D. Whenever the pleadings filed on behalf of the secretary shall be accompanied by an affidavit of the secretary or of one of his assistants or representatives or of the attorney filing the same, that the facts as alleged are true to the best of the affiant's knowledge or belief, all of the facts alleged in the pleadings shall be accepted as prima facie true and as constituting a prima facie case, and the burden of proof to establish anything to the contrary shall rest wholly on the taxpayer.
>
> E. The collection procedure provided for in this Section shall be in addition to any other collection procedure provided by law.

LSA-R.S. §47:1574.1 (emphasis added).

(3) LSA-R.S. §1582 Chapter 18, (Administrative Provisions), Part III (Assessment and Collection Procedures) of Subtitle II (Provisions Relating to Taxes Collected and Administered by the Collector of Revenue) of Title 47 (Revenue and Taxation) provides:

> A. Failure by any person obligated to collect any tax from taxpayers on behalf of the state to remit such taxes collected shall, without demand or putting in default, cause the tax, interest, penalties, and costs to become immediately delinquent and the secretary has the authority, on motion in a court of competent jurisdiction, to take a rule on such person, to show cause in not less than two or more than ten days, exclusive of holidays, why such person should not be ordered to cease from further pursuit of business. This rule may be tried out of term and in chambers and shall always be tried by preference. If the rule is made absolute, the order rendered thereon shall be considered a judgment in favor of the state, prohibiting the person from the further pursuit of said business until he has paid the delinquent tax, interest, penalties, and costs, and every violation of the injunction shall be considered as a contempt of court and punished according to law.
> B. The provisions of this Section shall not apply if the taxpayer has entered into an installment agreement for the payment of delinquent taxes with the department and is in compliance with the terms of the agreement.

LSA-R.S. §47:1582 (emphasis added).

Discussion

Sales Tax:

For the periods in question, the Defendant engaged in the business of retail sales is responsible for the collection of the sales tax on each retail sales transaction pursuant to the provisions of LSA-R.S. §47:303. For the periods in question, the Defendant has failed to file all necessary tax returns and/or failed to pay the delinquent taxes, penalties, interest and fees due under the provisions of LSA-R.S. §47:306. Inasmuch as the defendant has failed to make a report and/or pay the sales tax required by law to the Secretary of the Department of Revenue, the Secretary has determined the tax owed for those periods pursuant to LSA-R.S. §47:307.

Withholding Tax:

At all times relevant the defendant employed persons to perform services for it. With respect to each withholding period the defendant either failed to file all the required withholding income tax returns and withhold and remit the amount due or filed required returns and failed to remit the amount due. Inasmuch as the defendant has failed to make a report and/or pay the withholding income tax required for a particular period to the Secretary of the Department of Revenue, the Secretary has determined the tax owed for that period pursuant to LSA-R.S. §47:1562.

Affidavit of Correctness:

An affidavit of correctness signed by the Tax Officer assigned to the account in question, a representative of the Louisiana Department of Revenue for this purpose, accompanied the pleading filed. Accordingly, all of the facts alleged in the pleadings shall be accepted as prima facie true and as constituting a prima facie case, and the burden of proof to establish anything to the contrary shall rest wholly on the taxpayer. LSA-R.S. §47:1574.1(D), LSA-R.S. §13:5034. Should the defendant have a defense to this action, under these provisions, all defenses must be presented in an answer prior to the time fixed for hearing, and no court shall consider any defense unless so presented and filed. Nor may any court grant a continuance for the purpose of filing an answer. If any defense is asserted in an answer filed prior to the hearing and it becomes necessary to present other evidence in rebuttal, a supplemental memorandum will be filed on behalf of the petitioner.

Conclusion

Sales Tax:

As the assessments issued with respect to the tax periods included on the Schedule of Outstanding Tax Liabilities have become final, pursuant to LSA-R.S. §47:314, §47:1574.1 and §47:1582, the Plaintiff is entitled to the relief requested and prays that a rule absolute and order be issued by this Court prohibiting the Defendant from the further pursuit of business until such time as the Defendant has paid the delinquent taxes, due to the State of Louisiana up to and including any amounts that may be due as the date of this hearing.

Withholding Tax:

As the assessments issued with respect to the tax periods included on the Schedule of Outstanding Tax Liabilities have become final, pursuant to LSA-R.S. §47:1574.1 and §47:1582, the Plaintiff is entitled to the relief requested against the defendant and prays that a rule absolute and order be issued by this Court prohibiting the Defendant from the further pursuit of business until such time as the Defendant has paid the delinquent taxes, due to the State of Louisiana up to and including any amounts that may be due as the date of this hearing.

It is respectfully submitted that the petitioner is entitled to judgment in its favor ordering the defendant to cease business until the delinquent taxes at issue have been paid.
