Tax Relief to Individuals and Businesses Affected by South Louisiana Severe Storms and Flooding
Return Filing and Tax Payment Deadlines Extended

The Louisiana Department of Revenue is granting filing and payment extensions to taxpayers whose homes, principal places of business or critical tax records are located in parishes declared federal “disaster areas” by President Obama following severe storms and flooding in South Louisiana in August 2016. The declared disaster areas include the following parishes: Acadia, Ascension, Avoyelles, East Baton Rouge, East Feliciana, Evangeline, Iberia, Iberville, Jefferson Davis, Lafayette, Livingston, Pointe Coupee, St. Helena, St. Landry, St. Martin, St. Tammany, Tangipahoa, Vermillion, Wahington and West Feliciana. If additional parishes are declared federal disaster areas by President Obama, they will receive the same relief.

For tax returns and payments submitted by the extended deadline, the Department of Revenue will waive any late filing penalties, late payment penalties and interest that would otherwise apply. Any return or amount on which penalty or interest began accruing before August 11, 2016, will not be eligible for this relief.

Affected taxpayers filing a paper return whose homes, principal places of business or critical tax records are located in one of the declared federal “disaster areas” should write “South La. Flooding 2016” in BLACK ink on the top of their returns.

WITHHOLDING TAX

The Louisiana Department of Revenue is granting payment extensions to any employer whose principal place of business or critical tax records are located in any parish declared a federal “disaster area.” The extensions are available for withholding payments due on or after August 15, 2016, and on or before November 15, 2016 and withholding returns due on or before October 31, 2016. Withholding payments will not be subject to penalty and interest as long as the payments are received by November 30, 2016.

INDIVIDUAL INCOME, CORPORATION INCOME & FRANCHISE AND OTHER INCOME TAXES

Filing and payment extensions for various income taxes are available to taxpayers whose homes, principal places of business or critical tax records are located in any of the federal “disaster areas” listed above. Extensions are available for individual income, corporate income and franchise, fiduciary, partnership and partnership composite taxes and estimated tax payments. For filing purposes, extensions are available for taxpayers with original or extended due dates on or after August 11, 2016, and on or before January 17, 2017. For payment purposes, extensions are available for taxpayers with original due dates on or after August 11, 2016, and on or before January 17, 2017. Accordingly, taxpayers currently on extension are not eligible for any additional extension for purposes of payment. Qualifying individuals and businesses will have until January 17, 2017 to file these returns and pay any taxes due. This includes the estimated tax payment for the third quarter of 2016, normally due September 15, 2016, and the final declaration, normally due January 15, 2017.
