

Revenue Information Bulletin No. 17-013

July 26, 2017

Sales Tax

Annual State Sales Tax Holiday Scheduled
Friday, August 4, and Saturday, August 5, 2017

The “Annual Louisiana Sales Tax Holidays Act” provides an exemption from state sales tax on the first $2,500 of the purchase price of most individual items of tangible personal property for nonbusiness use on the first consecutive Friday and Saturday of each August. The state sales tax is payable on the portion of the purchase price of any individual item in excess of $2,500. (See Louisiana Revised Statute 47:305.54).

The 2017 holiday begins on Friday, August 4, 2017, at 12:01 a.m. and ends at midnight on Saturday, August 5, 2017.

Changes to Annual Louisiana Sales Tax Holiday

Through June 30, 2018, the Annual Louisiana Sales Tax Holiday provides only a partial exemption from state sales tax. Consumers purchasing eligible items of tangible personal property during these dates will pay 3% state sales tax. Two percent (2%) of the sales price or cost price of an eligible item of tangible personal property is exempt from state sales tax. For information on the applicable state sales tax rate, please see R-1002A, Acts 25 and 25 Taxable Rate of Transactions for Exemptions and Exclusions.

Purchases Eligible for Exemption

The exemption applies statewide to most consumer purchases of tangible personal property, provided that the property is not for use in a business, trade, or profession. This exemption applies only to state sales taxes.

Purchases Not Eligible for Exemption

Transactions involving vehicles subject to license and title, meals furnished for consumption on the premises where purchased, including to-go orders, transactions for the purchase of taxable services and for the lease or rental of tangible personal property do not qualify for the annual sales tax holiday exemption. This means that, in addition to the specific exclusions from the holiday for sales of vehicles and meals, the state sales tax holiday also does not apply to purchases of taxable services (hotel occupancy; amusement, recreational, and athletic admissions; repairs to tangible personal property; laundry, cleaning, pressing, and dyeing services; vehicle parking; the furnishing of cold storage space; printing services; and telecommunication services) or to leases or rentals of tangible personal property.

Conditions for Exemption

The following activities are eligible for the sales tax exemption during the two days of the annual sales tax holiday:

- Buying and accepting delivery of tangible personal property;
- Placing tangible personal property on layaway; and

A Revenue Information Bulletin (RIB) is issued under the authority of LAC 61:III.101 (D). A RIB is an informal statement of information issued for the public and employees that is general in nature. A RIB does not have the force and effect of law and is not binding on the public or the Department.

- Making final payment on tangible personal property for immediate delivery, even if delivery must be delayed, provided that the customer has not requested delayed shipment.

Special Provisions

Louisiana Revised Statute 47:305.54¹ provides that the following activities are eligible for the sales tax exemption during the two days of the annual sales tax holiday:

- The exemption is allowed on both inputs to and withdrawals from layaway.
- Purchases during the holiday with “rain checks” issued before the two-day holiday are eligible for exemption, but purchases made after the holiday with “rain checks” issued during the holiday are not eligible for exemption.
- Orders for immediate shipment are eligible for exemption even if the shipment is after the holiday, provided that the customer does not request delayed shipment.
- The post-holiday exchange of merchandise to effectuate changes in size, color, or correction of defects does not create a tax liability, but exchanges after the holiday for dissimilar items will be considered the purchase of new property on which the sales tax will be payable.
- Items that are normally sold as a unit, such as dining tables and chairs, cannot be individually priced for the purpose of creating a separate eligibility cap for each individual item.
- For a 60-day period after the holiday, dealers who issue refund or credit for the return of merchandise that was eligible for sales tax exemption during the holiday can issue refund or credit for the state sales tax on that returned merchandise only if the customers returning the property have receipts showing that the tax was actually paid on the original purchases, or the dealers are otherwise able to document that the state sales tax was paid on the original purchases.

Miscellaneous Information

Act 25 of the 2016 First Extraordinary Session of the Louisiana Legislature repealed the Cash Register Reprogramming Credit. Please see Revenue Information Bulletin 16-012 for further information. Retailers should report exempt sales from the Annual Louisiana Sales Tax Holiday on Schedule A-3 (transactions taxed at 3%) of the state sales and use tax return (R-1029). The exempt sales during the sales tax holiday shall be reported utilizing code 5088 on Schedule A-3.

Questions concerning this publication can be directed to sales.inquiries@la.gov.

Kimberly Lewis Robinson
Secretary

¹ Louisiana Revised Statute 47:305.54(C)-(G).